

AstralGuide Daily to be resumed soon

by AstralGuide

After a long gap, the daily Astralguide news will be resumed soon.

We are working on the new site and hope to be able to offer daily horoscope reports with indepth analysis, without any cost to the readers.

The updated site should be ready by end of 2006 or early 2007.

Astralguide.com offers RSS feeds, or Javascript syndication for free once the service is re-started.

By policy and discretion we do not publish many of our forecasts and predictions. But by strong demand by various of our readers, we will be posting some of our predictions and forecasts for the years and for the geo-economic areas in the fast moving and changing life of our world.
