Article POSTED in Jan 2000

Future is already there - we just need to feel it.

The immediate future (up to one year from now)

These are very BRIEF notes. We will be posting more details shortly. The events which started in 1981 will end their course in 2000- early 2001. The new moon in Aries from April 4th 2000, is just the commencement of some of the most important events which will affect our lives, in all forms. Next months may change the world scenario forever - the world capital markets, geo economic & political changes, fateful events and nature's behavior - how it is all going to change our lives - be the first to read the forecasts.

Important Astrological events happening at a certain period, reflect their impact for a long time to come. One such event is going to be May 28, 2000 - the conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn.

Although this is cyclic, the events of this year are especially strategic.

On May 1, 2000 - seven major planets will be in Taurus, a phenomenon occurred last in 539 during the period of Byzantine empire.

World : the world will see enormous changes and shifts in the coming months. The world will see enormous changes and shifts in the coming months.

May, June, July are exceptionally important months.

Expect major changes and events in Iran, Ireland, Mexico, Turkey, Greece, New Zealand, India and around South Asia, Korea North and South, Pakistan, Egypt, Iraq and major part of Middle East, Russia and the USA.

Global changes : We entered in the age of aquarius in 1998. The new age will unleash extremely structural changes in the way we live - causing great changes in economy, religion, nations and political systems. Religious fundamentalism terrorism and ideology related crimes will increase many times more in coming period.

Highlights: A major shift of policy in international affairs.

3 large countries of the world will be attacked by enemy nations. Big losses and the world will be shocked. More than 10 countries will see incredible internal disruption and chaos causing them to crumble, disintegrate or change their current status.

Great natural and man made disasters, events causing great loss of all kind.

Events started in 1981 due to 3 jupiter and saturn conjunctions in that year will continue to create events till 2001. However the conjunction of these same planets on May 28, 2000 will create events which could be considered catastrophic and war like.

Asia Pacific and Middle East

Possible Nuclear explosions or accidents or intentional attacks around Korea, India and Middle East. Unless there is some miracle, the probability of nuclear explosive or energy misuse is imminent. The dangerous and extremely anti human elements will have access to powerful weapons causing great distress to humanity.

South Asia

India and Pakistan will suffer major draught and shortage of water in 2000 and may cause great disasters.

The governments will be criticized for its negligence.

India may receive a surprise attack by Pakistan and unless there are miracles, there could be a major nuclear conflict.

The military leadership in Pakistan will suffer major losses. There will be a great upheaval in Islamabad in the next 6 months. Some very important events will change the course for next 8 years. Expect Many dramatic events including secret deaths and internal strife.

Middle East & Gulf

Iran will have enormous rifts and the majority of Iranian people will be suffering under evil leaders who will misuse religion for political control. The chain of events will only end in 2007/2008 whereby the country will emerge as democratic and will become part of international community.

There will be at least two coups in Middle East. Saudi Arabia may face major challenges. A few dramatic events around Iraq and Israel will begin a chain of events which will only end in 2007.

Central Asia : The foreign religious elements will sow seeds of disharmony and the rift created by religious fundamentalists will blow the central Asian republics into turmoil specially from end of 2000 onwards and will end in 2009.

Latin America Mexico

Major political and economic shift in coming months.

Mexico may see important political and economic changes. Country's economy will boom but violence and internal strife will increase.

USA The US will have to make major policy decisions during 2000, which will have longer term impact on the world.

Unless there is a spiritual pacification, the US presidency will be attacked and the possibility of the president's death in office.

The Next US president will have 3 major attacks in different forms, on him during next 5 years. He will survive by karmic effects and in 2005, the same president will re-win the elections and may be fatally attacked again in 2005.

USA may suffer catastrophic events including major fires, agricultural and industrial accidents. US will become involve in a few major wars starting from June-July 2000.

Europe & Russia

Russia will be entering into a new era of economic changes and will possibly be more open to the world and more disciplined approach in internal affairs will be uplifting for common people. Russia's well being and better health will impact positively on Eastern Europe, Near East and Central Asia.

Europe may see some changes in its political administration and will continue to progress on most fronts.

The world Leaders: The 2nd half of 2000 will be unfortunate for many major personalities in the world.

A major royal family death and many heads of state will be losing their lives in unnatural circumstances.

Top Leaders in many countries will be dying in office. We cant write the specific names in this brief report.

Economy

While in some parts there will be bumper crops many areas will suffer major draught, barren lands, crop destruction and the impact of serious climatic changes.

Capital markets will be extremely volatile for 4 months starting from May 2000.

Some people will lose enormous amounts of funds. Various integrations, mergers on large scale. Few very large corporate giants will be changing their course. Microsoft Corp will emerge as stronger, more vigorous and powerful after June 2000 although its current state will alter. More detailed reports are not being posted on the net.

The near-term future (from one to 10 years from now) 2000-2010.

A major war will start from 2000-2001 which will eventually end around 2007.

Many countries will disappear or be re-structured.

The North and South Korea will be united.

China will go eventually democratic after great destruction and major offensives against all neighboring countries. China will have structural changes in its present form. Big human loss.

Afghanistan will break and its territories will be forming part of existing and new countries.

Current Pakistan will disintegrate and major structural shifts in the geo-economic area.

USA will have to engage in 4 major conflicts.

India, Russia and West Europe will form alliance with USA.

Russia will emerge as economic power and a benevolent nation with more and more internationalization of its people.

India will lead the world again in spirituality and a new system of markets, living style and political system will emerge in India which will be inspiring and very contributing to the world peace and human growth.

Leadership: The US will see changing patterns of politics. The open, user friendly and environment sensitive policies started during Clinton/Gore period will show greater gains from 2002 onwards.

A few female and black leaders will emerge in next 4 years. I foresee a woman becoming very powerful around 2005 or earlier and 06-07.

Religions: The organized religion will suffer major changes in this period. There will be a remarkable shift and structural changes.

A new humanitarian and spiritual leader will be appearing finally.
