

Predictions and forecast for year 2001

by Assistant

Posted Jan 2001

Future is already there - we just need to feel it. The immediate future (up to one year from now) Year 2001 These are partial predictions for 2001 and beyond. We wrote about the special astral events last year which may trigger a series of intense conflicts and war like scenarios.

We should not think of a global war as that will be fatalistic for humanity and we sincerely believe that if we all try to know the evil and educate them with love, they may change. Evil can never be finished but yes destroyed. Most evil elements die a young death and or they self-destruct.

Despite this known fact for millions of years of humanity, communities and nations have decided to punish the evil and made attempts to end its schemes and designs.

Goodness and truth always triumphs and wins eventually but much havoc and destruction is caused along with misery, death and loss.

In this new age we may not have to repeat our brutal history of savage wars in our foolish attempts to destroy evil. Evil will be destroyed but evil forces will keep re-birthing again and again wherever there is darkness of ignorance, poverty of ideas, material and lack of love, harmony and peace.

Again and again in the cyclic path of human evolution, we create and discover methods to self-destroy or inflict massive destruction of humanity. This is nothing new.

Everything has been tried before and well known. Human history and its libraries are burned by evil forces on recurring intervals by massive attacks on innocent people and then large civilized bodies respond with bigger attacks and thus we have self destroyed millions of times. What civilization have we developed in past known history after the last great quasi disappearance of past societies?

We are the same people who never learn from our past and the destructive forces in the form of negative energy keep inflicting pain and thus the retaliation cycle starts and this will go on for many millions of years to come.

How to survive and keep our communities protected from evil when acquisition of self-destruction is widely available and almost an open market.

You have vivid examples of this savage evil force right in front of you everyday reported by media yet we are numb and keep living in our ideal world of a false peace.

Can we destroy these evil forces by starting a war against them like we spray pesticides to kill pests? Pest's species will never be wiped out. They will come again and again. You may use the pesticides in a few sessions and kill them all but they will be back in the next crop.

Likewise the world will have evil forces on its head. The most common and known method is to eradicate them. This formula will be applied for years to come.

I have some news for all of you. We do have alternatives if we want to avoid wars and stupid conflicts but for that world will have to train itself and listen to its sub conscious mind. I have come again to this world to reform and I use the science of astrology to prepare for the time to come. We all know in our minds that if we want we can avoid killing the evil and finding alternate routes but thatâ€™s the easiest way out â€œ just go and destroy.

After our prognosis for year 2000 which was posted in early part of 2000 where we wrote about very eventful astral phenomena and whose impact will be felt in next 8/9 years to come.

It is late night hour and today I will post some of my notes for the coming times, which are, I repeat only probabilities. They are not yet events and can be avoided by various means but if we continue to be collectively mad and depressed we will have to face them.

Note the events of July 2001 onwards till Sept 11 2001.

Between now and early November and till end of the year, conflicts of local and international nature will be imminent and can cause massive loss of material, humanity and good and evil forces.

From end of this year and June 2002 things will start calming down and most people will think it is all normal and then from May/June 2002 till October 2002 things will be hot. Anything can happen.

February 2003 onwards events will again be of significant importance. November 2003, Sept 2004, October 2005, March/Apr, Jul to Nov 2006, the whole of 2007 will again see major shifts and changes.

The nations in the conflicts will keep entering and going out like a game and the losses could be enormous. The USA could avoid misery but for the destiny of the United States is that it must tear down all the old and putrified, bulldoze and then re-build.

This will be the pattern in next 7 years. Outcome will be that many countries may cease to exist or disappear and many shifts and restructuring can be expected.

The fresh and free feelings after 2005 and 2007 will boost the economies again and once again the world will be on the track of progress and socio-economic development.

Nuclear explosions around Southern/Western Asia or Persian/Arabian seas/Mediterranean/Red Sea are possible.

The USA and China Middle East Pakistan may enter into a newly created conflict which can be devastating for the Middle East and Pakistan.

US may suffer great losses in coming years but if that happens many times bigger destruction will be imminent in some areas of conflict.

The dormant giant of the USA once awakened can be difficult to pacify.

Nightmares for the American president till 2005 are a big probability.

Diplomatic efforts by Europe, Russia, India may not succeed.

If not checked and other options not used, Europe, Mediterranean, parts of North and South America, Parts of Russia, and 3 points in Asia will see accidental appearing planned attacks by biological, chemical and other massive destruction weapons.

The human life and extended destruction may be many times bigger than all wars of past 200 years.

Elements arising out of Southern Asia, North-Western Asia, Sudan, Egypt and Arabian Gulf will be uncontrollable by any national government and thus a world consortium of nations may have to be formed to combat their attacks. It may seem unthinkable but Iraq and Iran may become friendly of the USA, Europe and Russia and may participate in joint efforts.

Turkey, India, Central Asia may have tough time checking certain fanatic elements.

China may resist entering into conflict for a long time but things may change. It all depends on Chinese leadership how they will perceive the world power scenario.

Their role in next 7 years conflict can be fuzzy.

The possible people in following cities may take fateful decisions to start new chains of events:

Islamabad, Kandahar, Kabul, Baghdad, Moscow, Paris, London, Washington DC and surrounding areas.

The countries affected or involved may be:

New Zealand, Fiji, Australia, North and West Africa including Sudan and Egypt, Turkey, Iraq, Greece, Tibet, Northern India, Pakistan, Morocco, Syria, Lebanon, Israel, Arabian gulf, China and Burma [Myanmar], Lithuania, Germany, Palestine, Libya, Georgia, Iran.

Will add more later.

A Comment on the US ELECTIONS 2000

US President Election : Astralguide predicted the election of Al Gore to the American Presidency. He indeed won half million more votes than the opponent candidate representing Republicans. The Cancerian, Mr. Bush is president [reluctantly, almost pushed by people around him] not for his 'qualifications' but for energies around him. The rise of George W Bush is NOT by election but by selection. He is a very fine person with all qualities and weaknesses or vices of a modern man but he will feel that he is not very enthusiastic, not because he is not capable of, but because he may not find any kick in doing so. Its very difficult to take decisions for him. Destinies of the Sec of State and The VP, and Father Mr. Bush are also very significant and they will play an important role. He is selected by a panel of Supreme Court Judges. As per our prediction in Feb 2000, the US presidency will be 'attacked' and this has been the case here. This manipulative action and a hate and fear based attempt to pave way for the republican candidate is against nature. Any actions or manipulations against nature are defeated very strongly in the next cycle of karmic wheel. Just before elections we had predicted in our daily newsletter that the times for the US and the world were going to be very unusual and God bless the USA and our beloved world. We also standby our prediction on 2 attacks on US presidency. After July 2001 George W Bush will be re-thinking about his presidential term. The US Presidency will have two very serious attacks during 2002-2005 period. More on this later.

William Clinton's powerful fateful astral chart has been extremely beneficial to the US, its economy and its organizational structures. Any attempts to hurt him will be actually hurtful blow to the US. His extremely powerful energy is very positive and beneficial to the US Economic and political stability. Three very large lobbies representing tobacco, defense equipment, another big 'group' and few revengeful politicians will do irreparable damage to the US interests and will cause alienation in the world and will greatly impact the US' position in the world capitals.

EARTHQUAKES

01:29:2001 World: As we wrote last year as the consequence of Jupiter Saturn conjunction and several eclipses, serious shifts and movements of earth will continue cause losses till august 2001 Specially on the pacific Coasts of the USA, Mexico, Central America, India, Pakistan, Afghanistan Iran & Central Asia.Above from Daily astralguide Newsletter January 29 2001

NEW DELHI, Sunday Feb 25, 2001(Reuters) See News of Feb 25A tremor shook parts of northern India early on Sunday, almost one month after a devastating earthquake left at least 30,000 people dead in the country's west. An India Meteorological Department official confirmed the tremor resulted from an earthquake measuring 6.7 on the Richter scale that had its epicentre in Afghanistan.

"The epicentre seems to be in Afghanistan near the Tajikistan border. The magnitude was 6.7 body wave on the Richter scale," A. K. Shukla a senior meteorological official, told Reuters.

"It has been felt in (the capital) New Delhi and Srinagar but the epicentre is about 1,000 kms from Delhi," he said.The tremor was also felt in the northern city of Chandigarh. Residents in New Delhi said they felt the tremor at around 8:00 a.m. (0230 GMT)."Everything was shaking and everyone in our building has come out on to the street," said a Reuters correspondent.

"The epicentre seems to be in Afghanistan near the Tajikistan border. The magnitude was 6.7 body wave on the Richter scale," A. K. Shukla a senior meteorological official, told Reuters.

"It has been felt in (the capital) New Delhi and Srinagar but the epicentre is about 1,000 kms from Delhi," he said.The tremor was also felt in the northern city of Chandigarh. Residents in New Delhi said they felt the tremor at around 8:00 a.m. (0230 GMT)."Everything was shaking and everyone in our building has come out on to the street," said a Reuters correspondent.

"The epicentre seems to be in Afghanistan near the Tajikistan border. The magnitude was 6.7 body wave on the Richter scale," A. K. Shukla a senior meteorological official, told Reuters.

"It has been felt in (the capital) New Delhi and Srinagar but the epicentre is about 1,000 kms from Delhi," he said.The tremor was also felt in the northern city of Chandigarh. Residents in New Delhi said they felt the tremor at around 8:00 a.m. (0230 GMT)."Everything was shaking and everyone in our building has come out on to the street," said a Reuters correspondent.

"The epicentre seems to be in Afghanistan near the Tajikistan border. The magnitude was 6.7 body wave on the Richter scale," A. K. Shukla a senior meteorological official, told Reuters.

"It has been felt in (the capital) New Delhi and Srinagar but the epicentre is about 1,000 kms from Delhi," he said.The tremor was also felt in the northern city of Chandigarh. Residents in New Delhi said they felt the tremor at around 8:00 a.m. (0230 GMT)."Everything was shaking and everyone in our building has come out on to the street," said a Reuters correspondent.

"The epicentre seems to be in Afghanistan near the Tajikistan border. The magnitude was 6.7 body wave on the Richter scale," A. K. Shukla a senior meteorological official, told Reuters.

"It has been felt in (the capital) New Delhi and Srinagar but the epicentre is about 1,000 kms from Delhi," he said.The tremor was also felt in the northern city of Chandigarh. Residents in New Delhi said they felt the tremor at around 8:00 a.m. (0230 GMT)."Everything was shaking and everyone in our building has come out on to the street," said a Reuters correspondent.

Seattle, Wednesday, Feb 28, 2001An earth shift in Washington state and its capital Seattle.Message to Starbucks/Microsoft/Costco and few others.:

Beyond 2001 - Period of 10 years 2001-2010

Questions? We received over 150 queries on the following issues.

Will Korea North and South be unified.

A: Yes They will be before 2009-2012What is the future of China.

A: The current system will be over in 2007-2012. Shocks n gradual. 100% probability.

What is your forecast for Pakistan and India - two South Asian countries ?

A: India and Pakistan will be unified. This fateful event will happen in next 9 years. Coincidentally, the political union of Southern Asia is almost sure and imminent in the second half current decade.

The near-term future (from one to 10 years from now) 2000-2010.

A major war will start from 2000-2001 which will eventually end around 2007.

Many countries will disappear or be re-structured.

The North and South Korea will be united.

China will go eventually democratic after great destruction and major offensives against all neighboring countries. China will have structural changes in its present form. Big human loss.

Afghanistan will break and its territories will be forming part of existing and new countries.

Current Pakistan will disintegrate and major structural shifts in the geo-economic area.

USA will have to engage in 4 major conflicts.

India, Russia and West Europe will form alliance with USA.

Russia will emerge as economic power and a benevolent nation with more and more internationalization of its people.

India will lead the world again in spirituality and a new system of markets, living style and political system will emerge in India which will be inspiring and very contributing to the world peace and human growth.

Leadership: The US will see changing patterns of politics. The open, user friendly and environment sensitive policies started during Clinton/Gore period will show greater gains from 2002 onwards.

A few female and black leaders will emerge in next 4 years. I foresee a woman becoming very powerful around 2005 or earlier and during 2007.

Religions: The organized religion will suffer major changes in this period. There will be a remarkable shift and structural changes.

A new humanitarian and spiritual leader will be appearing finally.

The middle-range future (5-20 years from now).

Structural changes in Business, industry, governments, religion. Please wait for details.

The long-range future (20-100 years from now, i.e. up to A.D. 2100). Please wait for the details.

The distant future (100-1,000 years from now, i.e. A.D. 2100-3000)

The far distant future (over 1,000 years hence, i.e. after A.D. 3000).

Keep a watch on this page or bookmark it.

Questions Answers on Future of the World

Predictions and forecast for year 2001 by Assistant